www.tourismiran.ir

Iran is the land of four seasons, history and culture, souvenir and authenticity. This is not a tourism slogan, this is the reality inferred from the experience of visitors who have been impressed by Iran's beauties and amazing attractions. Antiquity and richness of its culture and civilization, the variety of natural and geographical attractions, four - season climate, diverse cultural sites in addition to different tribes with different and fascinating traditions and customs have made Iran as a treasury of tangible and intangible heritage. Different climates can be found simultaneously in Iran. Some cities have summer weather in winter, or have spring or autumn weather; at the same time in summer you might find some regions covered with snow, icicles or experiencing rain and breeze of spring. Iran is the land of history and culture, not only because of its Pasargad and Persepolis, Chogha Zanbil, Naqsh-e Jahan Square, Yazd and Shiraz, Khuzestan and Isfahan, and its tangible heritage inscribed in the UNESCO World Heritage List; indeed its millennial civilization and thousands historical and archeological monuments and sites demonstrate variety and value of religious and spiritual heritage, rituals, intact traditions of this country as a sign of authenticity and splendor. Today we have inherited the knowledge and science from scientists, scholars and elites such as Hafez, Saadi Shirazi, Omar Khayyam, Ibn Khaldun, Farabi,

Iran Today

In the recent years, tourism as an emerging industry has drawn lots of attention of many countries. The advantages along with the richness and diversity of Iran's tourism attractions have made the country to consider tourism as one of the priorities in its economic development.

Azadi Tower - Symbol of tradition and modernity

Geography:

Iran as a vast country with 1.648 km² is located in the south west of Asia and the border countries are: Afghanistan, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Iraq, Pakistan, Turkey, Turkmenistan and from the south, the Sea of Oman and the Persian Gulf.

The Flag of Islamic Republic of Iran :

The flag of Islamic Republic of Iran was officially adopted on 29 July 1980.

The colors of the flag date to the mid- 18th century; green represents Islam, white represents peace, and red means courage. According to sources, the white stylized script on the red and green panels, repeated 22 times, is the Islamic phrase Allahu Akbar, meaning «God is greater than to be described.»

The Iranian ensign is centered within the white band.

Iran Coat of Arms:

Iran's coat of arms is a symbol said to symbolize the five principles of Islam, and the centered sword is representative of the country's strength.
